

Jennifer Stephen

Tuba

Jennifer Stephen comes from Yellowknife, Northwest Territories, where she began playing the tuba at the age of fifteen. She holds a bachelor's degree in Tuba Performance from Memorial University of Newfoundland, a Master's degree in Tuba Performance from Bowling Green State University, and recently completed the Artist Diploma Program at Toronto's Glenn Gould School. Her principle teachers have included Ken Knowles, Velvet Brown, Roger Bobo and Sasha Johnson.

Jennifer enjoys exploring the solo possibilities of the tuba, and has been a quarter finalist in CBC Competition for Young Performers, and placed second in the International Women's Brass Conference solo tuba competition. An active freelancer in Ontario, Jennifer can be seen performing with groups such as the Hannaford Street Silver Band, Hamilton Philharmonic, Orchestra London, and the Thunder Bay Symphony Orchestra, among others.