

Joseph Orlowski

Clarinet/Therapist

Joseph Orlowski has held the position of second clarinet with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra since 1988. Prior to that he held positions with the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra as Assistant Principal and Bass Clarinetist, and the National Ballet Orchestra as second clarinet. From 1998-2000 he was Associate Principal Clarinet with the Montreal Symphony Orchestra.

Joseph has performed at various chamber and solo venues across Canada and has participated in summer festivals such as the Festival of the Sound and the Ottawa International Chamber Music Festival. He is currently on the teaching faculty at the University of Toronto.

Joseph is also a Certified Personal Trainer and teaches 'postural awareness and fitness seminars at the University of Toronto.