

Dave Robilliard

Percussion

Dave Robilliard is very active as a freelance percussionist and clinician in Southwestern Ontario. He is currently principal percussionist with the Stratford Civic Orchestra and the International Symphony Orchestra, and he has also performed with the Windsor and Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony Orchestras. In addition to his performing, Dave teaches privately and works with the South Huron District High School Percussion Ensemble, and is also on staff at the University of Western Ontario. He earned his Honours Bachelor of Music in performance at UWO and proceeded to complete his Master of Music in performance at Oklahoma City University. Dave is a past member of the Oklahoma City Philharmonic and the Enid Symphony Orchestra. He is entering his fifth year on faculty at NMC.