

Larry Shields

Asst. Music Director/Jazz Coordinator

Larry Weston Silver Band's Music Director, Larry Shields began his musical training in the Salvation Army York Temple, and played bass trombone in Weston Silver Band until 1992. He is an honours graduate of Humber College in Music Performance. In addition to Weston, Larry is the Jazz Director of the National Music Camp of Canada. A busy freelance musician, Larry currently plays bass trombone in the Hannaford Street Silver Band and is Head of Music at Del La Salle College, an independent school in Toronto.